BRITE COALITION ISSUES STATEMENT AFTER FIRST CONVENING OF WILDFIRE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

SACRAMENTO, CA – Statement on governor’s proposal and the first convening of the bipartisan Conference Committee on Wildfire Preparedness and Response:

“The BRITE coalition, a growing group of over 1,000 organizations and individuals, is encouraged by the response in Sacramento to address the threat of extreme weather and institute important policy reforms. The governor's recently announced proposal and the convening of the bipartisan Conference Committee on Wildfire Preparedness and Response are important first steps. These actions make clear that they are committed to working together to ensure our state is prepared to face the threats of changing weather.”
